

NOVELTY WINS THE FUTURITY

DETROIT FUTURITY AND JUNIOR-YOUTH RACES IN RACE.

DETROIT, Mich.—Finishes Second Love Not, the Viceroy filly, runs the race over the track 20 times over and comes in second to Novelty, racing.

DETROIT, Mich.—Hindreth's Blackfoot and Shilling, the Keene breed colts, were the two main contenders to win the race yesterday in brilliant fashion.

Both horses were well with Novelty, who started from the gate in front of Hindreth and 2 to 3 against the Hildreth colts and 2 to 1 against Bashti, the latter being an even money chance for the places.

Not, opening at 13, went up to 14 on some of the cards, with a pretty stiff play on her to show.

RACE RECORDS IN RACES.

While the oral speculators were busy there was plenty of action in the paddock under the shade trees. James Breen, A. E. Knapp, August Belmont's jockey and his son, Stearns, had a race arranged early in the day so that the field consisted of twelve starters.
Thomas Welsh, trainer of Bashti, decided at the eleventh hour to substitute Glass for Garner. Just why Welsh did not increase the money to Garner, who rode the two winners on Saturday, who nobody seemed to know, unless it was due to a fact that Garner would not ride the fillies in front. But he did not increase Glass' money, and the two winners on Saturday could not have done worse than Glass. Novelty realized this more than Welsh when the race was over.

Hindreth also made a shift in riders for Zeus at the last moment, putting him on instead of Thomas, who was either off or of Thomas' Hildreth Bouvier. Not after reaching the track at top speed for half a mile could be checked. Love Not, however, cutted a way of more than ten minutes at the barrier which was a mere handicap for Novelty.

Love Not, with easily the champion colt and one of the greatest young horses ever produced by an American breeder, was built with building strength and did not falter when the critical moment arrived.

That was when Shilling drew his whip at the end of the stretch and laid the passenger on thick. It was a desperate moment for Love Not was setting a terrific pace and looked like a winner. But at the last, his going pace Novelty staggering under his burden and increasing his speed, was demanded. At that moment Bashti, who had been taken up several times by the hard rush up the backstretch, got through an opening next to the inner rail and with a turn of speed that fairly transfixed the big crowd she went after Novelty in a way that made Shilling exert himself to the limit.

Bashti's run came a trifle too late, however, and Novelty earned the day, his time being 1:12 1/4, and his share of the stakes being $23,700, of which John E.
Madden will receive half in accordance with an agreement he made when he sold the king-size colt to Hindreth last spring.

NOVELTY'S GREAT RECORD.

Novelty is the first two-year-old to win the Saratoga Special, the Hopeful and the Futurity and his total earnings for the year since he made his first bow at Belmont Park last May exceed $75,000.

Bashti's share of the money was $4,343.33 and Love Not's was $2,196.67. While James R. Keene's Iron Mask got no part of the prize, the veteran owner of Castleton still enjoys the distinction of having two Novelty and Love Not, the former ready for action.

LOVE NOT RUNS AWAY.

As the colts and fillies neared the weighing and the starting judge was about to assign them their positions and sent down to get a firm grip on Love Not's bridle. The Voter filly, who was full of ginger and evinuity wanted to run, caught the boy napping for in a jiffy she bit the horse in her teeth and rushed away from the others as if forty hungry tigers were after her. Reid begged at the reins until the colt stopped and then all over he leapt on, nipping and pulling.

Love Not ran at top speed all the way up the backstretch and around the far turn.
At that point Reid suddenly steered the filly toward the outer rails and to avoid a crash she pulled up of her own accord.
Then a husky stableman grabbed her by the head. It was slow work getting her out of the rail and when it did she bit the hand of the stableman at a mile and a half from the finish.

Thomas Hitchcock's Stude had a walk over in the steeplechase. Hylla, Jessie and Liberty Lane declined the issue.

Hamilton Court, 7, to 10, was another

Hindreth winner as he breezed home with the third leg at a mile turning into a start in 1:28 2/5. Capt. E. R. Cas-satt's Llynymyr, 10, 1/2, won the place, with Wander, 10, to 1, third.

There is no doubt that Ocean Bound, Woodford Clay's champion three-year-old filly, could have beaten the world's best if she had been bred to a stronger mother.

She was slow in getting over the hurdles and reared in a frantic attempt to wrench free from the iron grip of the stableman, but the latter hung on until he had literally dragged Voter's turbulent daughter to the barrier. By that time she had run a length and a half from Black Mate, 11 to 1.

Liberty Lane declined the issue.
